

THE THIRD PARTY MOVEMENT.

When there is any talk of a third party movement the old line party organs throw cold water on it in all sort of ways.

The Enterprise calls the National Union Conference held at Cincinnati, a "tail to the Democratic kite."

Well suppose it should prove to be such an appendage to Democracy as is suggested by our contemporary and the platform should contain a silver plank, while those of either parties did not, would not the Enterprise, through loyalty to the chief industry of this State be compelled to support such a party?

The APPEAL under those circumstances would feel it a duty to support such a party.

If the Republican and Democratic platforms do not contain an out and out, unequivocal silver plank this journal will support the ticket of any other party that does, be it National Union, Farmers Alliance or anything else.

Nevada ever since its admission to the Union, has been squarely on the Republican lines and has never been classed as doubtful.

What is its reward? It has systematically been ignored by the administration sit upon, and spat upon.

Let Nevada once get into the "doubtful" camp where the leading Middle States are so frequently found and the party will begin to recognize us and treat us with the same servile consideration that it gives Indiana and Ohio. We must be "doubtful" to be recognized.

In the campaign no party that is not friendly to silver will dictate the course of this journal in politics, and we are of the opinion that the journals of Nevada whose editors propose to thank for themselves will adopt the same course.

It is the only course that will make the papers respected at home and the State respected in the East.

The State that licks the hand that smites it, deserves the smiting.

A Wonderful Echo.

At a watering place in the Pyrenees the conversation at table turned upon a wonderful echo to be heard some distance off on the Franco-Spanish frontier.

"It's astonishing," exclaimed an inhabitant of the Garonne. "As soon as you have spoken you hear distinctly the voice leap from rock to rock, from precipice to precipice, and as soon as it has passed the frontier the echo assumes the Spanish accent."

Enterprising.

A small boy, a blind man and a hand organ arrived in town yesterday. We understand the monkey was stolen in Reno, presumably for the purpose of starting a zoological department in one of her parks.—Silver State.

There are men in this city who are old enough to know better who go about with shotguns and kill singing birds, such as robins and meadow larks. The man who has the heart to silence the song of a bird as it sways on a bending branch putting forth its welcome to the Spring, is a coarse-grained vulgarian who ought to be thrust into jail to keep him out of sight of his fellow men.

In 1889 there were thousands of cattle and sheep died of starvation in Nevada. Now there is feed enough to supply ten times the number of cattle and sheep on the range.

An explosion of dynamite yesterday at Tarrytown, N. Y., killed a dozen or so Italians and wounded three times that number.

It looks bad to see a healthy man living in Canada while his family is in the United States, keeping still about it.

An admirer of Jim Corbett has wagered to beat the bass drum for two weeks in the salvation army if he is beaten.
